

Curriculum Vitae
YICHU LI

+44 7389 760076 | yichu.li3@icloud.com

Education

Bachelor of Science in Philosophy, Politics and Economics,
London School of Economics and Political Science

*2022-
July 2026*

- First three years average: first-class degree honour
- Relevant modules: Development Economics, Problems of Applied Econometrics, Probability, Distribution Theory and Inference, Econometrics I&II, International Trade, Microeconomics I&II, Macroeconomics I&II, Political Science modules

Digital Journalism Certificate, Reuters

- Obtaining and filtering reliable sources.
- Conducting effective interview.
- Journalistic ethics.

May 2024

A Levels, Dulwich International High School Zhuhai

- Achieved grades: Mathematics (A*) Economics (A*) Geography (A) History (A).
- Honours: Shortlisted for economics essay on minimum wage in John Locke Essay Competition.

2018-2022

Skills

Technical skills

- Coding Languages: R, Stata, Quarto Markdown, LaTeX, GitHub, HTML, JavaScript, Python.
- GitHub Profile: <https://github.com/TsssssssShark>

Languages

- Mandarin (native), Cantonese (fluent).
- English (professional fluency: IELTS 8/C1).
- French (B1).

Experience

Course Facilitator for Prof. Oriana Bandiera, Economics Department, LSE

- Facilitate the undergraduate module EC307 Development Economics by producing and compiling study materials and an exam-style question bank.

*September –
December
2025*

Research Assistant for Prof. Oriana Bandiera, STICERD, LSE

- Performed data cleaning and interpolation on household panel data with geographical data.
- Created data visualisation on the effect of RCT on household inequality variables in facilitation towards an on-going research project.
- Contributed in a literature review and verifying mathematical models in facilitation towards a handbook chapter on poverty trap.

July-October 2025

Capstone Project on Policy Evaluation Dissemination for the OECD

- Led the data collection and organisation.
- Produced data visualisation in tables and charts with R, and an interactive map with HTML & JavaScript.
- Compiled writings into LaTeX and formatted per client requests.

*September –
December
2025*

Student Academic Representative, Philosophy Department, LSE

*September
2024 –*

- Represent students in 2026 PPE cohort in the home department.
- Collect and raise feedback and concerns from the student body to departmental meetings.
- Channel departmental policy updates to the students.

Volunteer, Local Covid-19 Testing Centre

*September
2021*

- Verified participants' personal information for community-based Covid-19 testings, enabled mass testing efficiency.
- Maintained testing centre order during a local Covid-19 outbreak, prevented overcrowding and breaches of social distancing.

Internship, Municipal Education Bureau of Zhuhai, Guangdong, China

June-August 2021

- Coordinated a facility safety check across 12 public kindergartens, organised an online communication group among the 12 principals and the Education Bureau representatives, ensured the kindergartens passing regulatory standards.
- Participated in a field regulation compliance inspection across 3 private primary schools, identified regulatory breaches of over-enrolment, ensured the schools comply with municipal regulations to deliver adequate education quality.
- Assisted parents with private primary school enrolment quires, ensured parents obtaining sufficient and accurate information before enrolling their children.